

I would like a breast pump. What are my options?

- Your insurance company may offer coverage toward a breast pump. Typically, they have contracts with certain Durable Medical Equipment (DME) companies. Please inform our staff if there is particular DME company you would like to use when you are approximately 36 weeks gestation.
- We will write a prescription for your pump at your 1 week postpartum/lactation visit.